

Gentlemen: I am glad that the FCC is supporting a telephone privacy law; some states have failed to enact one. However, Indiana has a law which goes beyond the one you are supporting and is working well. I would encourage you to continue to move towards a national law of this type, but to exempt states which already have a law in place. I would not like to see Indiana's Telephone Privacy law overridden by a lesser law. Thank you.